More options for shopping in the local area is required. If anything the lockdown this year proved how much another supermarket was required. I cannot drive and public transport was not running as normal. I usually rely on lifts to get to another Lidl in Huddersfield but this was also not an option. I can't see how it will have a negative impact on the nearby shopping centre as the last I heard Lidl don't have an opticians etc. Also you only have to loom at Wakefield road in Huddersfield to see that a number of supermarkets are able to exist in close proximity to each other while providing choices for consumers.
