The approval of a Lidl store in this area of the town will be a welcome addition. Currently people, including myself, travel to Waterloo or into Huddersfield to access a store that provides cheaper food than many of the major supermarkets. The local Sainsbury's at Salendine Nook and Lindley are expensive and for people struggling to buy items such as fresh fruit and veg Lidl would afford the opportunity for this to happen. The company pays an extremely good wage to its employees and the build would provide employment for a number of local people. There has been a significant number of new housing developments in the area but no increase in other services. I hope the Council approve this application and local residents see an improvement in their local shopping choices.
